

GUEST'S ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF CARNIVAL'S PREGNANCY POLICY AND ATTENDING PHYSICIAN'S PREGNANCY CERTIFICATION CARNIVAL'S PREGNANCY POLICY: Pregnant guests who enter the 24th week of estimated fetal gestational age before or at any time during the cruise will not be allowed to sail. Pregnant guests, who will not enter the 24th week of estimated fetal gestational age before or at any time during the cruise, must submit, prior to departure, a letter from their attending physician certifying that their gestational status is in accordance with this policy, and that the expecting mother is fit to sail. Carnival will not accept any agreement or recommendation from the guest and/or her physician that the policy be waived.

IMPORTANT: Zika virus infection during pregnancy can cause serious birth defects, you should discuss with your healthcare provider prior to booking travel to areas with active Zika transmission. Please visit the FAQ section of carnival.com to learn more about the mosquito-borne Zika virus as well as visit the U.S. Centers for Disease Control website for important information. <http://wwwnc.cdc.gov/travel/notices>

RESPONSIBILITY TO TIMELY NOTIFY: As provided in the cruise ticket contract, the guest is solely responsible for notifying Carnival of her gestational status, and for being in full compliance with Carnival's pregnancy policy. It is the guest's responsibility to provide this pregnancy certification form to her physician and to follow up with its timely completion and submittal to Carnival no later than 14 days prior to sailing. Failure to submit the completed form will result in denial of boarding and no compensation will be provided. Carnival reserves the right to request at check-in a legible copy of the completed form; Guests who booked within 14 days of sail date must bring original with them for collection at embarkation.
